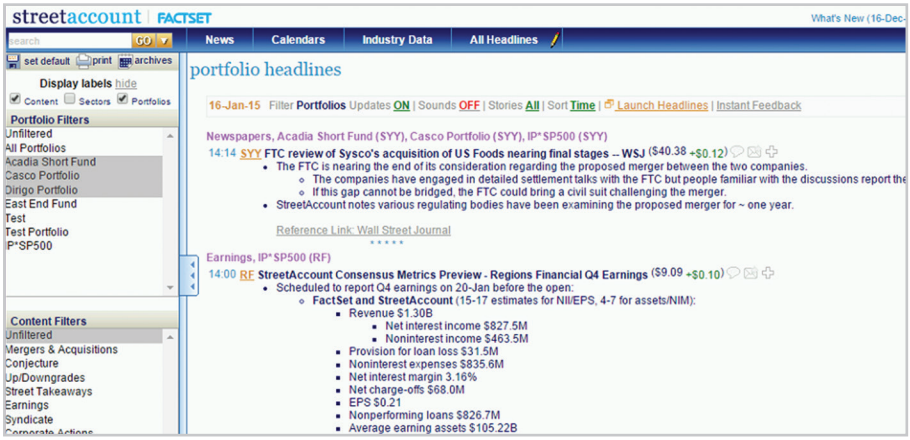
FactSet StreetAccount for Web

Filter out the noise and quickly access relevant, real-time news about the companies and markets you care about with the FactSet StreetAccount web application. Stay on top of market developments with stories and summaries written by industry professionals and pulled from all possible sources for corporate news.

FactSet StreetAccount provides you with an efficient method for managing news flow and highlighting key story facts in an easy-to-read format. Create custom profiles to access and receive news sorted by portfolio, sector, region, or subject, and stay on top of market news throughout the day with FactSet StreetAccount's Overnight, Midday, and Market Recap reports.



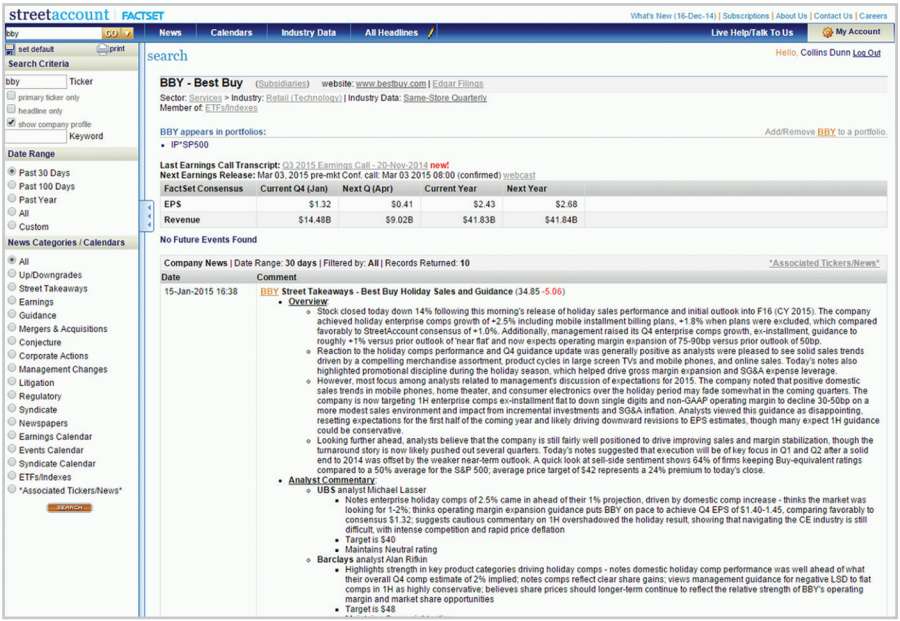
Access Insightful, Real-Time Company News

FactSet StreetAccount delivers comprehensive U.S., Canadian, and European company coverage (and expanding Asia Pacific coverage) by scanning all possible sources for corporate news. For individual companies, easily find the insight you need to make quick decisions or explain a stock's movement. Leverage our full news archives for deeper analysis.

Our writers include former portfolio managers, traders, analysts, and economists. They use their collective market expertise to report only those stories that are new and material, providing context where applicable, for an intelligent perspective. FactSet StreetAccount provides Earnings Previews and Conference Call Guidance, in addition to Street Takeaways, which summarize broker comments following major news events such as earnings, M&A, analyst presentations, and other company events.

Sources of coverage include:

- Brokerage firm research
- Company press releases
- Corporate conference calls and presentations
- Court rulings
- FDA and EU drug approvals
- FTC antitrust decisions
- Stories released by social media, newspapers, and television
- SEC filings
- Trading floor conjecture
- Twitter



Review Market Summaries

FactSet StreetAccount provides around-the-clock market summaries of the U.S., European, and Asian markets.

Market commentary includes:

- Overnight summary snapshots
- Political highlights
- Pre-market futures trading updates
- Pre-market, intraday, and after-hours stock trading information
- Sector highlights
- Updates on key global indicators
