

Supplement for the Processing of Japanese Personal Information

1. IBKR hereby undertakes to process Personal Information of Japanese data subjects (hereinafter "Japanese Personal Information"), in accordance with this Privacy Policy and applicable privacy legislation, including but not limited to the Japanese Act on the Protection of Personal Information ("APPI").
2. IBKR Entities other than IBSJ agree to provide relevant information requested by IBSJ, of its security measures for safeguarding Personal Information including Japanese Personal Information, and any applicable laws or regulations which may possibly limit the effect of such safeguards. Such information includes, but is not limited to, the details of the technical and organizational security measures for safeguarding Personal Information held by the IBKR Entities other than IBSJ; and governmental access rights to Personal Information stored in servers which the IBKR Entities other than IBSJ uses to store or process Personal Information.
3. IBSJ may at its sole and absolute discretion at any time and from time to time, restrict, discontinue, suspend, cancel, terminate the right to use, obtain, access, hold or process Japanese Personal Information, to comply with applicable privacy legislation, including but not limited to the APPI.